NIS & DEVIL'S TOWN - 11.900 RSD per person

Visit Emperor Constantine's birthplace Nis and one of the nominees for the New World's Wonders of Nature - Devil's Town!

Nis - Once known as Naisus, a birthplace of the first Christian Roman Emperor - Constantine the Great. Skull tower - the tower made of the skulls of Serbian fighters who rose up against Ottomans during the First Serbian Uprising and paid the ultimate price. Mediana - archaeological site with remains of a luxurious residence with a highly organized economy. Excavations have revealed a villa with thermae, granary and water tower. Devil's Town - the New Seven Wonders of Nature nominee! This natural monument is comprised of two natural and rare in the world phenomena: the soil figures, as specific forms of relief which appear rather attractive, and two springs of extremely acid water with high mineralization.
